* Call to Worship Karin Goodman

A prayer of Augustine of Hippo (354-430 CE)

Leader: God of life,

there are days when the burdens we carry are heavy on our shoulders and weigh us down,

People: when the road seems dreary and endless,
the skies gray and threatening,
when your lives have no music in them,
and our hearts are lonely,
and our souls have lost their courage.

Leader: Flood the path with light, turn our eyes to where the skies are full of promise;

People: tune our hearts to brave music;
with heroes and saints of every age;
and so quicken our spirits that we may be able to encourage the souls of all who journey with us on the road of life, to your honor and glory. Amen.

Few Welsh hymns are as well known or loved as this 18th-century text that did not gain its popular tune until the early 20th century. In both its original text and in English translation, it is a stirring hymn of pilgrimage filled with vivid imagery from Hebrew Scripture.

Prayer of Confession (unison)

This is the covenant God made with us: that God would put the law within us, and write it upon our hearts, and would be our God, and we would be God's people. God forgives the wrong we have done, and the good we leave undone. In penitence and faith, let us silently confess our sins to God.

(Silent prayer and reflection)

Assurance of Pardon

Leader: Goodness is stronger than evil;
Love is stronger than hate;
Light is stronger than darkness;
Life is stronger than death;
Victory is ours through him who loves us.

Prayer for Illumination    Karin Goodman

Leader: Lord, open our hearts and minds by the power of your Holy Spirit, that as the Scriptures are read and your Word is proclaimed, we may hear with joy what you say to us today. Amen.

Listen for what the Spirit is saying to the church.

Reading: Joshua 3:7-17

Karin Goodman

<sup>7</sup> The LORD said to Joshua, “This day I will begin to exalt you in the sight of all Israel, so that they may know that I will be with you as I was with Moses.

<sup>8</sup> You are the one who shall command the priests who bear the ark of the covenant, ‘When you come to the edge of the waters of the Jordan, you shall stand still in the Jordan.’”

<sup>9</sup> Joshua then said to the Israelites, “Draw near and hear the words of the LORD your God.”

<sup>10</sup> Joshua said, “By this you shall know that among you is the living God who without fail will drive out from before you the Canaanites, Hittites, Hivites, Perizzites, Girgashites, Amorites, and Jebusites:

<sup>11</sup> the ark of the covenant of the Lord of all the earth is going to pass before you into the Jordan.

<sup>12</sup> So now select twelve men from the tribes of Israel, one from each tribe. <sup>13</sup> When the soles of the feet of the priests who bear the ark of the LORD, the Lord of all the earth, rest in the waters of the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan flowing from above shall be cut off; they shall stand in a single heap.”

<sup>14</sup> When the people set out from their tents to cross over the Jordan, the priests bearing the ark of the covenant were in front of the people.

<sup>15</sup> Now the Jordan overflows all its banks throughout the time of harvest. So when those who bore the ark had come to the Jordan, and the feet of the priests bearing the ark were dipped in the edge of the water,

<sup>16</sup> the waters flowing from above stood still, rising up in a single heap far off at Adam, the city that is beside Zarethan, while those flowing toward the sea of the Arabah, the Dead Sea, were wholly cut off. Then the people crossed over opposite Jericho.

<sup>17</sup> While all Israel were crossing over on dry ground, the priests who bore the ark of the covenant of the LORD stood on dry ground in the middle of the Jordan, until the entire nation finished crossing over the Jordan.

Reading: Psalms 107:1-7, 33-37

<sup>1</sup> O give thanks to the LORD, for he is good;
for his steadfast love endures for ever.

<sup>2</sup> Let the redeemed of the LORD say so,
those he redeemed from trouble

<sup>3</sup> and gathered in from the lands, from the east and from the west,
from the north and from the south.

4. continued...

- 4 Some wandered in desert wastes,
finding no way to an inhabited town;
- 5 hungry and thirsty,
their soul fainted within them.
- 6 Then they cried to the LORD in their trouble,
and he delivered them from their distress;
- 7 he led them by a straight way,
until they reached an inhabited town.
- 33 He turns rivers into a desert,
springs of water into thirsty ground,
- 34 fruitful land into a salty waste,
because of the wickedness of its inhabitants.
- 35 He turns a desert into pools of water,
a parched land into springs of water.
- 36 And there he lets the hungry live, and they establish a town to live in;
- 37 they sow fields, and plant vineyards,
and get a fruitful yield.

Leader: This is the word of the Lord. People: Thanks be to God. Amen.

The stanzas here need to be understood as representing the voice of God, while the refrain (based on Isaiah 6:8) is the faithful human response to God's call. This becomes clearer if a leader or small group sings the stanzas, with the congregation joining on the refrain.

COMMUNION

Invitation to the Lord's Table

Leader: This is the joyful feast of the people of God!

People will come from north and from south

And from east and from west

To sit at table in the kingdom of God.

Opening Prayer

Leader: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Leader: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Leader: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Great Prayer of Thanksgiving

All thanks and praise to you, Eternal God.

You created all things in your wisdom, and sustain them in your being.

You made us in your image, forming us from the dust of the earth,
and breathing into us the breath of life,
that we might know you and love you.

When we rebel against you,
you do not turn away,
but make an everlasting covenant with us, promising to always be faithful.

You send prophets to guide us and we praise you joining our voices with the heavenly choirs and with all the faithful who have come before and all who come after who forever sing the glory of your name.

You are holy, God of majesty, and blessed is Jesus Christ, your Son, our Lord.
He lived as one of us,
knew our joy, our pain and our sorrow,
and died our death.

By his death on the cross
you revealed that your love has no limit.

7. continued...

By raising him from death
you conquered the last enemy, crushed all evil powers,
and gave new life to the world.
Holy Spirit, pour out upon us and upon these your gifts of bread and cup, that the bread we break and the cup we bless may be the communion of the body and blood of Christ.
Spirit unite us with the living Christ and with all who are baptized in his name that we may be one in ministry in every place.

* Hymn # 741

"Guide My Feet"

guide my feet while I run this race;
(yes, my Lord!)

guide my feet while I run this race, for I don't want to run this race in vain! (race in vain!)

- |                      |                       |
|----------------------|-----------------------|
| 2 Hold my hand ...   | 5 Search my heart ... |
| 3 Stand by me ...    | 6 Guide my feet ...   |
| 4 I'm your child ... |                       |

This African American spiritual is based on the imagery of “the race that is set before us” in Hebrews 12:1–2. Its call-and-response structure allows for the improvisation and addition of stanzas related to an athletic metaphor that is as vivid today as it was centuries ago.

If you are purchasing cards to donate, we ask that you keep them holiday neutral as not everyone celebrates Christmas. Thank you.

Prayer Chain & Prayer Requests

The Prayer Chain ministry is in need of a new organizer because Amy Myers is moving to Pittsburgh. She has been a fabulous coordinator for years and will be missed. This position offers a special way to stay connected with FPC congregants without having to be onsite. If you are interested in filling this vital role, please talk with Amy or Maggie. In the meantime, you can email requests to Amy at fpcprayerchain1@gmail.com and members will be lifting you up in prayer. You may also call Maggie O'Malley at 610-933-8816 and she will forward your requests.

Worship & Event Safety

You are welcome to use the doors to the left of the chancel, by the organ, to go to the restrooms at any time during worship. If you have a mobility concern, we have an usher in the Narthex who will accompany you down the ramp and let you in through the glass door. For security reasons, we will be keeping the glass door locked during worship. In addition, as a response to safety and security concerns, the Session has decided that external doors will remain locked during church events. If arriving late, people will need to be let into the building as needed once an event has begun.

Cards for the Military

There is a basket in fellowship hall for your cards, letters, and notes for individuals serving in the military. Jen Johnson will be delivering these notes to her nephew Peter Johnson and his Navy squadron. Contact Jen (physedjj@verizon.net) for more information.

Please indicate if you are willing to share with driving. Volunteers will meet in the church parking lot at 10:30 am and return by 2:30 pm. Thanks in advance for your help with this meaningful ministry.
